

Stop and think!

Platelets are a precious resource generously donated by volunteers.

Millions of dollars' worth are discarded unnecessarily every year.

Know your product:

- Platelets must NOT be refrigerated
- Store platelets only at room temperature (20° to 24° C)
- If in doubt do not use and contact your laboratory

Stop and Think... Stop the Waste!

For more information on blood and blood products visit www.blood.gov.au/stophewaste to access the latest information.