

3 October 2024 Release Notes

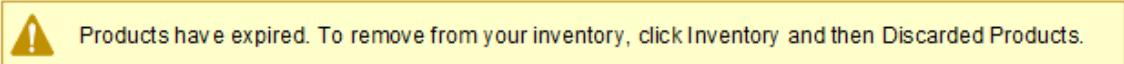

Australian Bleeding Disorders Registry (ABDR) Version 3.16.1

ABDR V3.16.1 Release

The Australian Bleeding Disorders Registry (ABDR) Version 3.16.1 will be released into production on the morning of Thursday the 3rd of October 2024 between 6:00 am and 8:00 am.

Feature/Screen	Description of Change
Enhancement to adjust order of products on ABDR Card	Patient Card Layout: Product is sourced from the Regimen(s) recorded with the latest Treatment Plan recorded for the patient. For each Regimen recorded with the latest Treatment Plan, display each unique Product on a new line as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Routine Prophylaxis,• Temporary Prophylaxis,• Bleed,• Immune Tolerance Therapy. If no Regimen has been saved for the latest Treatment Plan (i.e. there is no Product), display “Refer to Haematologist” in the Product field.
Factor dose rounding comment on ABDR patient card	New Business Rule - Where Hemlibra is a product in the latest treatment plan regimen, display the following messages in order on the patient card under treatment comments: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• (Hemlibra doses NOT rounded up to the nearest vial size),• Avoid use of activated prothrombin complex concentrate (aPSS) [FEIBA NF]. Contact the patients Haemophilia treatment centre for advice.

Display clearer notifications/menu items to manage expired products in MyABDR	New Business Rule When a user in MyABDR has expired products which are required to be discarded, and they navigate to the Stock on Hand screen, they must see the following new message. New warning message to be displayed in the Stock on Hand screen when products have expired: "Products have expired. To remove from your inventory, click Inventory and then Discarded Products."  Message to be applied to both MyABDR Web and MyABDR App.
Adding a message for users when updating email address in MYABDR web and App	Synchronisation issues with Active Directory and OKTA. For Portal users this can be an issue as they will have to wait five minutes before you attempt to login again and Login using your Username (not your email address). For MyABDR user this can be an issue as they will have to wait for an hour for OKTA to synchronise in with the updated details. Message to be displayed – If you update your email address, it may take up to one hour to synchronise with the MyABDR app. Please wait before attempting to log back in.