

Job Description

Title:	Senior Finance Officer
Classification:	APS6
Security Clearance:	Negative Vetting – Level 1
Location:	Canberra

The National Blood Authority (NBA) is an Australian Government statutory agency whose role is to work in a collaborative manner with all Australian governments and blood sector stakeholders to ensure Australia's blood supply is safe, secure, adequate and affordable, and to support best practice management and use of blood products in Australia.

Job Context

You will be part of the Finance team within the Finance and Business Services section. This section is responsible for the management of all financial (including a budget of over $1.2 billion) and business services across the NBA.

We are looking for great people with a demonstrated record in exercising initiative and judgement in the interpretation of policy and the application of practices and procedures; in providing detailed technical, professional, and/or policy advice in relation to complex problems; in applying strong stakeholder engagement and negotiation skills; and who have excellent oral and written communication skills.

Primary Job Purpose

Although not exhaustive, the duties and responsibilities of this position will require you to:

1. Develop, implement and monitor organisational budgets;
2. Prepare and deliver accurate periodic and ad-hoc financial reports, and year-end financial statements;
3. Oversee the accounts receivable and accounts payable function, manage the organisational asset register, perform various month-end and year-end activities, general ledger maintenance, and preparing the Business Activity Statement;
4. Manage associated financial processes such as stocktakes, audits and other cash management related functions;
5. Undertake a broad range of business services functions;
6. Work in a collaborative manner to achieve team goals ;
7. Prepare and contribute to papers, minutes, presentations and correspondence;
8. Respond to requests from other government agencies and stakeholders;
9. Build effective relationships and achieve negotiation outcomes with internal and external stakeholders; and
10. Contribute to NBA organisational strategy and culture.

Working at the NBA

All NBA officers are expected to actively and willingly participate in high level, organisation-wide responsibilities and administrative support activities. Officers are required to operate flexibly and exercise higher order leadership skills as well as directly undertake lower order independent work when necessary to get the job done. This reflects the nature of the NBA as a relatively small, specialist Agency and our limited capacity to backfill vacant positions for short periods within the limits of available finance and human resources. To recognise these circumstances, the NBA Enterprise Agreement provides for an annual payment of $1,000 to officers, subject to certain conditions.

Having regard to the flexible work requirements outlined above, the duties and responsibilities in this Job Description are subject to change and may be modified at any time for operational requirements.

Selection Criteria

The NBA applies a standard approach to the selection criteria for all positions. The suitability of applicants is considered based on the Australian Public Service Integrated Leadership System (ILS), their current and potential ability to perform the duties of a particular position at the level required, and their likely contribution to their work team and the NBA as a whole. In preparing your application, you are encouraged to consider the detailed guidance and capability descriptions of the ILS provided at <https://www.apsc.gov.au/integrated-leadership-system-ils-0>.

Specifically, applicants will be considered for the role against the following three primary selection criteria in the finance domain:
